Dear Charulata Indore-Londhe,

The Session organisers of the Session “The century of management: From Taylor to Prahalad: The development of modern management from a historical, political, economic and global perspective, 1911-2011” of the XVIth World Economic History Congress are pleased to invite Charulata Indore-Londhe for the presentation of a full paper at the conference to be held July 9-13 in Stellenbosch, South Africa at the Universiteit Stellenbosch.

The World Economic History Conference offers a forum for the professional exchange of knowledge and skills related the functioning of economics, management and history. Over 1000 scholars and economic policymakers are expected to be in attendance from over 50 countries. They will have the opportunity to learn from each other via over 800 presentations in 100 sessions.

The contributions of international scholars such as Charulata Indore-Londhe are crucial for the success of our session. The work of Charulata Indore-Londhe will enhance the diversity of perspectives and content represented. WEHC members value the opportunity to learn from and with our international colleagues.

If you have any questions or concerns, or if I may be of assistance in any way, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Best regards,

Drs. S.J. Keulen
WEHC Session Chair
