I also extend my gratitude to all who helped me in one way or other.

I take this as an opportunity to extend my warm regards and thanks to my beloved school teachers, whose wholehearted blessings and inspiration helped me complete this academic pursuit.

After all, I am indebted to my beloved, respectable parents. They gave birth to me, nurtured and for my grown up. Only their prayers, love, care, comfort and support helped me to achieve great success in my life. They did not think that I will reach this level. But they are always my well-wishers. Without them, I never dream to do this.
I would also express my deep sense of gratitude to my beloved eldest sister Mrs. Noora, brother-in-law Mr. Shaik Mohamed for their encouragement and support. A special thanks must be mentioned to my beloved nephews, S.N. Mohamed Shajith and S.N. Mohamed Shameer for relieving my tension through their babbling.

I express my sincere thanks and my deep gratitude with all my heart to my beloved friend Rev. Fr. M. David Michael, for his love, friendship, affection, care, periodic prayers, thought provoking suggestions, constant encouragement, manuscript correction, support, help, back-up and all his encouragements at all times. He is the person, who is familiar to me right from my childhood and sown seeds for the fruitful work by his positive approach. Really I would feel this is not enough to just say a word “THANKS”. But it is beyond its heighten. So as a token of gratitude, I dedicate this Ph.D. thesis to him.
