ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The time has rendered a great favour to me while undertaking the insightful marathon of completing this academic journey. A great flow of guidance, thoughts, ideas and caring nature emanated from my supervisor Dr. Sanjay Kumar Pandey who propped me up not only all through thick and thin but always helped me in lowering the academic and atmospheric mercury with his soothing smile and umbrella of cool supervision. Being a self made person himself, he understands the feelings of all his students and always lends his helping hand to keep us out of trouble. My gratitude to the role he played in accomplishing this mammoth task is inexpressible even in million of words. I always admire him for giving me freedom of expression even at times I disagree with him on issues. Thank you very much dear sir for showing such a great tolerance towards me. It would not have been possible for me to have an easy sail in the ebb and flow of Academic Ocean without his excellent guidance. I would always remain indebted to him. His wife Smt. Radha Pandey always treated me like her own kids Harsh and Miti. I just want to say her, thank you very much Ma'am for being so kind to me.

I want to extend my gratitude to the respected teachers of the Center Prof. Anuradha M. Cheney, Prof. Tulsi Ram, Prof. Ajay Patnaik, Dr. Phool Badan, Dr. Rajan, Dr. Preeti Das for their constant support and guidance. I want to thank my other teachers Prof. O. P. Bakshi (Retd.), Prof. Nirmala Joshi (Retd.) and Prof. S. K. Jha who taught me how to face difficult days in life.
Among the fellow friend travelers of my academic journey, Vimal, Vinay and Rachna deserves the special credit along with Tara, Manish, Sudheer, Arpana, Priyanka, Rajiv, Amit, Nitish, D.P., and Sudhakar.

It is the family where child learns first lesson of his life. Dear Mummy and Papa, it is because of you I exist in this world. My elder brother Keval Bhaiya, who always encouraged me to pursue higher education, deserves the maximum credits. My other family members, who are close to my heart, include Bhabhi, Nisha, Chandan, Pooja, Suraj, Archana, Rajan, Khushi, Khusboo and Sneha.

I also want to thank the library staff of JNU, IDSA and Teen Murti Library for providing useful materials for my research work.
