ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I express my profound sense of gratitude to my revered supervisor Prof. Indra Nath Mukherji for his invaluable guidance and keen interest in the completion of this study. Despite his tight scholarly schedules, he went through each draft of the thesis meticulously and provided intellectual input to the work by giving valuable suggestions and necessary corrections. My sincere thanks are due to him for providing me all possible help in sorting out various problems with utmost sympathy, punctilious responses and profound affection. But for his consistent help, the study would not have taken the present shape.

I greatly acknowledge the goodwill and ready help I received from Prof. Kalim Bahadur, Prof. S.D. Muni, Dr. Mahendra P Lama and others of the South Asian Studies Division of the Centre.

I have greatly benefitted from academic interactions with Prof. S. Tendulkar of Delhi School of Economics. I acknowledge my indebtedness to him. I am grateful to Prof. V. Pandit of Delhi School of Economics and Prof. Sidharth of Institute of Economic Growth for their comments and valuable suggestions.

I extend my warm thanks to all the staff members of the Libraries of Jawaharlal Nehru University, Delhi School of Economics, Institute of Economic Growth, Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, Indian Council for World Affairs, Institute of Public Administration, Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry, Indian Council for Social Science Research and UNICEF.
I express my sincere appreciation for immense co-operation and active help by Mr. D.K. Bose, President Officer, U.N. Information Centre, Lodi Estate, the Librarian and his associates of the Ratan Tata Library and the Librarian of UNICEF Library for easy access to collection of books and materials in their respective libraries.

My sincere thanks are due to my friends who helped in the completion of this study. I extend my special thanks to Mrs. Rama Aggarwal, Ratan Tata Library, who was a source of inspiration and moral support to my thesis work. I am thankful to our family friend Prof. Narain Dutt of Indian Institute of Foreign Trade, New Delhi for providing me inspiration as well as easy access to his collection of books in the initial stage of this work.

My greatest debt is to my husband Prof. S.K. Sachdev, Management Consultant, daughter Dr. Geetika Sachdev and son Sachin for sharing both, anxiety at the pace of my laggard thesis and joy at its completion.

Finally I must appreciate and thank Mrs Sharma and her staff of Sharma Photostat for an excellent job of giving final shape to this study.

Jawaharlal Nehru University
New Delhi
April 1995.

Mrs Santosh Sachdev