ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Comparative literature is the study of literature between two different languages. I have great pleasure in pursuing in this area because I am eager to know the mysterious side of the occult in comparison with the rational. My mentor as well as guide Dr. Clement Lourdes has guided me in my exploration to the unknown. I would like to record my humble gratitude to guide Dr. Clement Lourdes, without whom this research work would not have achieved this near perfection. He is the best example of ‘Good Human Being’. I proudly say that my guide molded me according to his wish and because of that I learned the art of language. Next, I would like to thank Dr. N. Natarajan Professor of English who gave me a moral support to do my work successfully.

The Doctoral Committee Members, Prof. N. Natarajan and Prof. C.S. Radhakrishnan, Professor and Head of the Department of Sanskrit have extended their precious time and scholarship for my research and I owe my deepest gratitude to them.

I wish to thank Professor and Head, Dr. S. Murali, Dr. Sujatha Vijayaragavan, Dr. H. Kalpana, Associate Professor and T. Marx, Reader. I also record my gratitude to the Assistant Professors Dr. Lakmai Mili and Dr. Binu Zachariah. I also wish to thank the Ministerial Staff of the Department who have supported me during all my official proceedings. I also thank the University Librarian, and the Departmental Staff of the Academic Section for all their timely co-operation.

My heartfelt thanks to my beloved friends Dr. D. Ramkumar, Mr. Raju Parghi, Mr. Muganthan, Mr. Prabu, Dr. S. Ganesan, Mr. Enoch and Mr. Subramani for their caring and friendly support throughout my academic career. I thank Mrs. V. Jayanthi, Ms. M. Parimala, Ms. P. Siyamala and Ms. Surithi, for their words of encouragement and support.
I thank Mr. Sagayam Elanchezian, he is encouraging and supporting me to complete everything at correct time.

I thank the support of various Libraries that greatly helped my research such as Roman Rolland Library, Puducherry, Pondicherry Institute of Linguistics and Culture (PILC), French Institute Library, Puducherry, Osmania University, Hyderabad, British Council, Chennai, Central Institute of English and Foreign Languages (CIEFL), Hyderabad, and Osmania University, Hyderabad.

I also profusely thank my mother B. Devagi, Uncle P. Ashokaramaseaker, elder brother B. Chandran, sister B. Santhi, sister in-law C. Ramadevi, nephew A. Hemesh, nieces A. Pavithra and C. Kishor. It is time to thank my wife S. Aritha; she is giving me moral support and encouragement to complete everything successfully in my life. Finally I thank God who made me who guided my every step.
