List of Tables

1.1 Profiles of the Urban and Slum Population in Selected Cities of India-2001 .......................... 7
1.2. Population and Rise of Slums in Delhi since 1951 .......................................................... 9
1.3. Sociological Theories and Approaches, which help understand the Phenomenon of Street Girls 24
2.1. Child Sex Ratio (1991-2001) (Girls per 1000 boys aged 0-6) ..................................... 53
2.2 Neonatal, post neonatal, infant and under five mortality rates for five years period preceding the survey by residence, India (1998-99) ........................................... 56
2.3. Literacy Rates in India (1951-2001) ............................................................................. 60
3.1. Categories of Children .................................................................................................... 69
3.2. Why are they on Streets? ................................................................................................. 70
3.3. Causes of Migration ......................................................................................................... 71
3.4: Human Poverty Index of Different States of India .......................................................... 73
3.5. No of slums (jhuggis) in Delhi since 1951 ........................................................................ 74
3.6. Occupational Status of Family Members ........................................................................ 74
3.7. Age Group of the Children ............................................................................................ 76
3.8. Residential Status of street Girls’ Families ....................................................................... 76
3.9: Educational Status of Street Girls .................................................................................... 77
3.10. Estimated Out-of-School Children in selected Urban Agglomerations of India ............ 79
3.11. What do they Do on Streets ........................................................................................... 80
3.12. Hours Spent on Streets .................................................................................................. 81
3.13. Problems Faced by Street Girls ...................................................................................... 82
4.1: Classification of Institutional and Non-institutional Care of Juvenile Justice .................... 132
4.2. Statement Showing the State-wise Release of Grant-in-aid Under the Scheme ‘A Programme for Juvenile Justice’, Number of Inmates Assisted and Number of Homes Assisted Under the Scheme ......................................................................................... 132
5.1: Major Activities of NGOS with regard to Street Children .............................................. 162
5.2 Educational Qualifications of NGO Personnel .................................................................. 180
5.3: Job Satisfaction of NGO Personnel ................................................................................ 181
5.4. Prospect for Career Growth ............................................................................................. 181
5.5: Monetary Satisfaction Level of the NGO Personnel ......................................................... 181
5.6. Satisfaction Level of Street Girl Children about NGOs’ Infrastructure .......................... 182
5.7. Satisfaction Level of the Street Children regarding Amenities provided by NGOs ......... 182