During the starting period of my research work, I was afraid of the subject whether I can complete the work or not. During these six years of my research, the Sarania Kachari community is also facing ups and downs. A development council was formed for some years then it breaks and they are struggling for Scheduled Tribe status. I am writing here whatever I have found in the field visit. With my limited knowledge I tried to include all folklore materials whatever I come across during field visit.

During my research, I have come across so many prominent personalities. Prof. Ulo Volk of Tartu University is one of them, his valuable advices kept me full of good feelings regarding my thesis writing. I would like to thank my teachers from the Department of Cultural Studies of Tezpur University Dr. Debarshi Prasad Nath Sir, Dr. Sunil Kumar Dutta Sir, Dr. Parasmani Dutta Sir, Dr. Pradip Jyoti Mahanta Sir, Dr. Juri Gogoi Kowar madam, Dr. Mandakini Barua madam and Late Dr. Kailash Dutta Sir for their advices.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Dr. Upen Rabha Hakacham of the Department of Assamese and Dr. Prabin Chandra Das, Retired faculty member, Department of Folklore Research, Gauhati University for having the source of encouragement. I express my gratitude to Prof. Kishore Kumar Bhattacharjee, Dr. Pallavi Bora, Guest Faculty Dr. Mrinal Medhi of Folklore Research Department, retired Associate Professor, and Dr. Dilip Kalita, ABILAC for their support from time to time.
I particularly would like to thank Dr. Anil Kumar Boro Sir, Head Of the Department of Folklore Research Department of Gauhati University under whose rigorous guidance I could complete the study, for which I am grateful.

I would like to thank my batchmates of Folklore Research Department for their help in various occasions specifically Rajiv Kumar Bordoloi, Archana Kalita, Urvashi Mahanta, Niran Brahma, Ajawali Basumatary and Supriama Basumatary.

I sincerely thanks to Nalini Deka, Tamulpur (Renowned writer of Sarania Kachari Community) and Ramesh Chandra Das (Roumari, Baksa) former President of Sarania Kachari Development Council, Late Satish Chandra Das, Former Principal of Boroma College for their help whenever I needed.

Finally, I wish to express regards to my parents for their blessings and having faith in me that makes me confident to my husband and brothers who have relieved me from my domestic responsibilities for the completion of the work. Without the cooperation of the people of Sarania Kachari community living in Barimakha, Roumari, Nij Juluki, Karemura, Goreswar of Baksa, Dhamdhama of Nalbari district it as not possible to complete the thesis in due course. My thanks go to all who helped me directly or indirectly in finalizing this work.
