ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

With a grateful heart....

First and foremost, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my research Guide, Dr. Premakumara G.S., Faculty of Economics and Coordinator, DOS in Economics, Sir M.V. PG Centre, Tubinakere Campus, University of Mysore, Mandya for his constant and meticulous assistance that I could carry out my research work in a scientific way. He has been sincere, professional and patient blended with a humane touch. Despite immense responsibilities, he devoted his precious time continuously and followed up my research study.

I take this opportunity to thank Prof. S. Indumathi, Chairperson, DOS in Economics and Co-operation, Member of Doctoral Committee, and Dr. Mahesh, Associate Professor, DOS in Economics and Co-operation, Manasagangothri, University of Mysore, Mysore for their valuable suggestions and academic inputs.

I humbly wish to thank Prof. H.R. Uma, Director, Sir M. V. Postgraduate Centre, Tubinakere Campus, University of Mysore, Mandya, Dr. Shivachittappa, Assistant Professor, DOS in Economics, Sir M. V. Postgraduate Centre, Tubinakere Campus, University of Mysore, Mandya, and Prof. T. Damappa, Associate Professor, DOS in Polymer Science, Sir M. V. Postgraduate Centre, Tubinakere Campus, University of Mysore, Mandya, for their whole hearted support and moral strength.

I express my deep sense of gratitude to Most. Rev. Dr. K.A. William, Bishop of Mysore and President, MDES, for his blessings and encouragement. My sincere thanks to Rev. Fr. Leslie Moras, Episcopal Vicar for Education, Diocese of Mysore, and all other members of the MDES for their continuous support.

I am very grateful to Rev. Fr. Bernard Prakash Barnis, Rector and Manager, St. Philomena’s College, Bannimantap, Mysore, for taking keen interest in my research work and helping me in a very special manner at the time of difficulties.

I humbly wish to express my sincere appreciation to Prof. Dr. Ruth Shantha Kumari, Principal, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore and Prof. M Krishnegowda, Former Principal, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore for their sustained assistance.
I take this opportunity to thank Rev. Dr. M Vincent, Principal, St. Philomena’s Pre-University College, Bannimantap, Mysore, for persuading me all the time and standing by me as a rock at the times of difficulties.

I thank Prof. Sujatha Devi B., HOD, Department of Economics, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore, and also Prof. Othbert Pinto, Director, PG Centre, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore, for their continuous help on day to day basis.

I profusely thank my friends and well-wishers Prof. Louis Colaco, Former HOD, Department of Botany, Teresian College, Mysore, Dr. Alphonsous D’ souza, Controller of Examination, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore, Dr. Ravi J. D. Saldanha, Associate Professor, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore, Prof. A. T. Sadebose, Associate Professor, St. Philomena’s College, Mysore, Prof. Ronald Prakash Cutinha, Librarian, Philomena’s College, Mysore, and Sri. Sunil D’souza, Lecturer in Zoology, Philomena’s PU College, Mysore for inspiring me to take up the research work, backing me and providing moral support.

I am also thankful to Dr. R Nagabhushan, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Government First Grade College, Kuvempunagar, Mysore, for motivating me to do the research work and guiding me all along.

I bow my head in reverence to express my heartfelt gratitude to my venerable parents late Mr. J. A. Saldanha and Mrs. Cynthia Pinto, who emptied themselves so that, I may be full.

I will be failing in my duty, if I do not express my heartfelt thanks to my wife Smt. Shanthi Maria Sequeira, my loving daughters, Priyal Shemoan Saldanha and Primal Shenoan Saldanha, for their love, care and affection, whose support, helped me to complete the work within a short time. I also thank all my family members, relatives and friends for helping me directly or indirectly.

I sincerely thank Prof. Ravishankar P, Assistant Professor, Department of Economics, Government First Grade College, Mosalehosahalli, Sri Adil Pasha, Lecturer in Economics, Government PU College, Bindiganavile, who were generous with their valuable time, insights and supported me in this endeavour.
