PREFACE

This field investigation, on which, this thesis is based was undertaken by me between May 2010 and January 2013 as a research scholar of Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR) in the Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University. The study was funded by ICHR, New Delhi with a Junior Research Fellowship to me. My sincere thanks go to ICHR for supporting me.

In the course of my work, I have had the opportunity to discuss my work and findings with a large number of people of Majuli and other places and their invaluable suggestions contributed a lot in putting together the contents of this thesis.

The study was undertaken under the guidance and supervision of Dr Dilip K Medhi, Professor and former HoD, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University. I am ever indebted to him for encouraging me to take up this study, and his help and guidance at every step boosted my morale to complete the work in the best possible and meticulous way. Without Dr Medhi’s active participation, suggestions, supervision, constructive criticism and constant encouragement, it would not have been possible for me to undertake and complete this work.

I am immensely grateful to Dr. Shri Shri Pitambar Dev Goswami, Satradhikar, Auniati Sattra, Majuli who guided me a lot by providing academic assistance and valuable suggestions. I also convey my thanks to each and every bhakat residing at the Sattra campus for providing me with useful information.

I am grateful to Prof Rekha Das, Dean of Science and HoD, Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University for her invaluable help and suggestions. I am also thankful to all the Professors of Department of Anthropology, Gauhati University for their qualitative advice at various times.

I am immensely obliged to the teachers of Cotton College who assisted me a lot with their valuable ideas and guidance.

I am grateful to Mr Syed Iftikar Hussain, IAS, Upper Assam Commissioner for his unconditional whole hearted support during the course of my study in Majuli.

I am thankful to Mr Jatin Goswami, Sattriya guru for minutely guiding me with the knowledge of all forms of the Sattriya dance.

Thanks are also due, particularly to Mr Wooma Sankar Dev Nath, Librarian, Mrs Bijita Goswami, Assistant Librarian and other staff of Krishnakanta Handique Central Library, Gauhati University, Library of the Regional Centre of Indian Council of Historical Research, Gauhati University, College of Architecture, Guwahati and research institutions like Kamrup Anusandhan Samity, Guwahati and Vivekananda Kendra Institute of Culture, Guwahati. I also thank Central Library, University of Calcutta, Library of Asiatic Society, Kolkata, Library of Anthropological Survey of India, Kolkata for their warm co-operation, consultation and collection of relevant material.

I express my sincere thanks to my senior Ms Mousumi Sharma, for her whole hearted help, cooperation and encouragement rendered to me all the time.

At personal level, I express my gratitude to my father Shri Dasharathi Goswami and Mrs. Banti Goswami, my mother, Ms. Nirmali Goswami, my elder sister and Mrs Manju Goswami, my mother-in-law, Mr.Dinanath Goswami, my cousin brother for their strong moral support and constant inspiration during the entire period of the study. I must also mention the understanding of my little three year old daughter Orgha who had to remain alone for long periods of time and co-operated through her own small ways.
I owe special debt to my beloved husband Mr Himanka Goswami for his whole hearted support and encouragement without which it would not have been possible to complete the task.

I highly appreciate all my friends and their families who directly or indirectly extended priceless help and co-operation during the course of my study in Majuli. In this regard, I would like to mention the contributions of Mr Amarjyoti Bora, Mr Tulasi Rajkhowa, Mr Jogen Das and his family, Mr Maniraj Barthakur, Mr. Joydeep Chakravorty, Mr Suman Chatterjee, Mr Tanmoi Chatterjee, Mr Tej Narayanan, Mr Luit Chaliha, Mr Mitu Khatoniar, Mr Samiran Goswami, Mr Abdul Sazid, Mr A Das, Mr Utpal Baruah and Ms Parismita Sarma. I also express my heartfelt thanks to all the people of Majuli for their co-operation, most of whom helped without directly coming to the forefront.

Last but not the least I would like to put on record the guidance of Bhabani Offset Pvt. Ltd., Guwahati without which this thesis would not have seen the light of the day.
