Acknowledgement

It is a matter of great pleasure to express my profound gratitude to Prof (Dr.) Shiv Sahai Singh, the Senior Professor of law, The University of Burdwan, Burdwan (West Bengal) who has supervised this project and guided me in pursuing this study to its socio-legal end, despite his busy schedule. I take this opportunity to express my sincere indebtedness to Prof. (Dr.) S.S. Singh for devoting his valuable time for going through the draft and suggesting a number of amendments in it.

I express my gratitude to Head of Law department, Dr. Manik Chakraborty and ex-head of law department Dr. S.K. Sadhu. I express my respect to Dr. A. H. Mondal and Dr. M. Momin Readers in law for their valuable suggestions during the completion of the work. I would also like to record my sincere thanks to Gloam Ambia, Mr. Sambhunath Chatterjee, Mr. Niladri Ghosh, Mr. Kalyan Chatterjee and Mr. Ram Prasad Chakraborty of law department for their co-operation in all respect in completion of the research work. I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my thanks to my students particularly Binay Kr. Nonia, Supratim Roy and Shukla Roy all LL.B. (Final) 2004 for their co-operation during empirical survey of the project.

Mr. Suman Mukherjee, secretary of Bardhaman Sadar Renaissance Society (B.S.R.S.) and his friends have also been helpful during collection of data, I owe gratefulness to them. I also express my thanks to Mr. Pradip Chattopadhyay, lecturer of the department of History, the University of Burdwan for helping me in translating the questionnaire from English language to Bengali.

My humble acknowledgement is due to the authorities and staffs of the library of Indian Law Institute, New Delhi, the Indian Society of International Law, New Delhi, Ministry of Human Resource Development, Govt. of India, V. V. Giri Labour Institute, Noida, Library of Supreme Court, IIPA, National Library of Kolkata and Central Library of Burdwan University for their help in this academic pursuit.

I will be failing in my duty if I do not express my gratefulness to parents especially my father Shri Janthir Das and mother Mrs. Sova Bai and my elder brother Shri Sajan Das who provided a congenial atmosphere to complete this study at home. Without their consistent inspiration, encouragement and active help probably this study would not have been possible.

In completing this study many known and unknown persons have guided, helped and assisted me and their suggestions have benefited me in a number of ways. I am grateful to all of them.

Last but not the least, I acknowledge Mr. Dipak Dubey, proprietor of Computer Point, Burdwan, for happily feeding the draft into computer and obtaining the print-outs neatly and meticulously.
