Acknowledgement

As the subject is comparatively new in the Indian legal scenario, really it was problem some to collect materials and information in order to carry on this research work. Really I am thankful to the authorities and staffs of the National Library, British Library, American Centre, Seminar and Central Library of the Burdwan University for providing me some relevant materials and information on the subject and for giving me the permission to use their library. In order to do this research work I have got the help from the office of the State Pollution Control Board, Indian Law Institute etc. and also collected relevant information from the Ministry of Environment, Central and State Govt. of the West Bengal.

I am deeply indebted to my supervisor Dr. Sarit Kumar Sadhu, Reader, Dept. of law, Burdwan University who generously extended his kind help and guidance in solving many difficulties.

I would also like to express my deep sense of gratitude and respect to Prof. (Dr.) S.S. Singh Professor, Dept. of law, Burdwan University, whose vast knowledge on the field really helped me to carry forward my research work.

I also express my sense of gratitude to Mr. Manas Roy, Principal of Midnapore Law College, Mr. Arup Kr. Poddar, Lecturer, National University of Juridical Sciences, Saltlake and Miss Swati Sinha, Lecturer, Dept. of Law, North Bengal University, who encouraged me to carry on this research work.

I am also immensely grateful to all of my colleagues, non-teaching staffs and students of Midnapore Law College, Midnapore (W) who helped a lot to complete this research work.
I also like to record my feeling of appreciation especially to my students, Ayan Bhattacharjee, Indrajit Adhikari and Biswajit Pal, all are the students of final year LL.B, Midnapore Law College who helped a lot in preparing the manuscript and to make it presentable for publication. In this regard I also like to specially mention about Mr. Dilip Roy, Computer Operator, Midnapore Law College, & Mr. Kuntal Ghosh of Sandipan Computer Centre, Midnapore, who helped in printing of this paper.

Last but not least, I like to pay my regard to my parents, brothers, sisters, my friends and specially to Parvin Bani for inspiring and supporting me for carrying on this research work.
