Acknowledgements

I am grateful to Prof. Dr. Narayan Chandra Chatterjee, M.Sc, Ph.D. the supervisor of this project for his sincere guidance during the whole tenure of my work along with his sincere help. I am also indebted to the Head, Department of Botany, Burdwan University, Burdwan for extending the support by giving laboratory facilities during my work.

I am very much thankful to Dr. U. C. Sarkar, M.Sc, Ph. D., Principal, B.B.College, Asansol for his moral Administrative support during the tenure of my work. The help rendered by Dr. Prasenjit Sarma, M.Sc, Ph. D., Head, Botany Department, B. B. College, Asansol is also thankfully acknowledged. I am also thankful to Dr. B. K. Niyogi, S. Pandey and D. Banerjee of the B. B. College, Asansol for extending their help.

I must convey my sincere thanks to my entire research colleague of the Mycology Pathology research Lab., Department of Botany, University of Burdwan who extended their hand as and when needed.

It is also needless to mention that without the help of Prof. Dr. Subrata Roy, M.Sc, Ph. D., Retired Professor of Entomology, Department of Zoology, Burdwan University, Burdwan the present work would have been completed. Similarly the help extended by Dr. Sanjay Mandal, M.Sc, Ph. D., DEM, Reader, Department of Zoology, B. B. College, Asansol is also gratefully acknowledged.

For the statistical analysis of the data, the help extended by Dr. Amitava Bose, Sr. Lecturer, Department of Commerce, B. B. College, Asansol is unforgettable and thankfully acknowledged.

The typing of the manuscript, a painstaking job, would not be possible without the help of my Ex-Student, Mr. Sandipan Ray and Amit Kumar Gupta, Department of Environment and Water Management B. B. College, Asansol.

I am also thankful to Mr. Arup Ghosh, M.Sc., laboratory Instructor, Botany Department, B.B. College for extending his technical assistance to me whenever I needed. In this connection I also acknowledge all of my departmental colleagues and staffs for their help and cooperation. Again I must convey my sincere thanks to Mrs .Subhra Chatterjee and Sri Anirban Chatterjee for their encouragement.

At last, but not the least I must be openhearted to acknowledge and convey my gratitude to my father and mother and all other member of my family who takes all the pain during the tenure of my work. This thesis would not have been completed without the constant moral support rendered by my wife Mrs. Debolina Bandyopadhyay and my beloved son Debanik.
