Acknowledgement

I am fortunate to express my gratitude to each and every person who helped me in achieving my most important milestones of professional life.

To start with the maker of this world, Lord Almighty, the most gracious and merciful who has showered me with all the blessings, patience, motivation, devotion and everything that has facilitated my journey crossing every hurdle in life to reach at this stage and showering me with the most wonderful and precious blessing, my loving PARENTS. Without their unconditional love and support I would have been nowhere. The simplicity and never-say-die attitude inculcated in me by them made the difference and has allowed me to climb this mountain.

My most sincere thanks to Dr. Urmish Chudgar, Managing Director-Intas Biopharmaceuticals Limited for providing an opportunity to employees for continued education. Sir, without your vision, zeal for science and helping nature, this task was not possible. A huge thanks from my heart to you, Sir.

I am honored to have Dr. Rustom Mody as my Guide and mentor who has helped me in executing this mammoth task. Sincere thanks for identifying my potential and providing opportunity, for which my words alone cannot do justice. The vast knowledge you possess and optimism you share under all circumstances is commendable. It was a great learning experience both professionally and personally for which you will always remain as my most cherished ‘teacher’.

My sincere thanks to Dr. Brajesh Varshney who has always guided, motivated and provided opportunity to me for pursuing and achieving this task. Your faith in me encouraged for which I owe a big thanks to you ‘teacher’.

The support by Dr. Dhananjay Patankar, Dr. Kashmira Pagdiwalla, Mr. Sanjay Nagrath and Dr. Subir Basak was precious. I am thankful for the support from Dr. Himanshu Gadgil has pushed me to reach the finishing line.

I am really grateful to Dr. Archana Gayatri for taking me through this phase and critically reviewing my thesis for which I would be thankful forever. I am obliged and very thankful to Prof. Anjana Desai (Department of Microbiology) for keeping faith in me and providing me opportunity for Ph.D. My sincere gratitude to Prof. T. Bagchi (Head-Department of Microbiology), whose timely help allowed me to reach the finishing line.

I would take this opportunity to thank all of my teachers from schooldays to post-graduation to whom I will be indebted throughout my life. The teachings has helped me gain success and true-values of life.
LIFE at Intas has been is the most happening and cherished moments in my life and it would never have been so interesting without the fabulous support of all Intasians and especially my lab mates. A big thank you to Sudhrati Gupta for helping me professionally and personally in achieving this milestone. The support and encouragement from Dr. Harish Shandilya was unconditional, for which I would be very thankful to him. I would like to thank all my lab mates, Sanjeev Gupta, Ranjeeta Lunawat, Shailendra Gaur, Ravin Mehta, Tamanna Shah and Preeti Rastogi. A special thanks to Sonal Jain and Viral Shah who has helped me in executing experiments. I am grateful to Dr. Anita Krishnan, Uttara Saptarshi, Vinod Kumar and Bhawna Sharma and their group for all the analytical support. I would also like to express my thanks to all the departments of R&D, Quality Control, Library and IPM at IBPL. Without the help of TEAM INTAS as a whole my task would not have been accomplished.

Thanks are due to all staff members at the Department of Microbiology and a special mention for Shirish Bhai, Kenneth Bhai, Nair Bhai and Nishikant Bhai who have extended their help to me in all the administrative activities.

I am grateful to my friends and batchmates. A special thanks to Rajesh Sudhakaran without whom it was difficult for me to settle in Ahmedabad.

Acknowledgement would not be enough for this one very dear friend of mine who stood by me always since my B.Sc. days. Thanks a zillion Geoby for being my friend and providing continuous encouragement without which I would have not even completed my post-graduation. I am glad to have the love and encouragement from Jean, Austin and Annette.

A special thank you to my loving sisters, Zehra and Umm-E-Farwah who are always there under all circumstances. Sincere thanks to my brothers-in-law Parvezali and Mohammadi. I am thankful to my son Yaaseen, nephews Taherali and Ayaaz, and nieces Nafeea and Faatehmah for making life fun filled.

I am grateful to my in-laws for extended support and timely help.

The heavenly blessings from my paternal grandparents are always with me. I am most privileged to receive encouragement and blessings from my maternal grandparents. Thanks a lot to all my relatives.

I am thankful from the bottom of my heart to my beloved wife Zinobiya for sharing life during happiness, sorrow and for our sweetheart kid Yaaseen. I appreciate your support and motivation. Thanks for being there in my life.

-Sincerely,

Hatim
