

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

By

Dr. A. Kaliammal*

ABSTRACT

This paper broadly describes the developments in the field of Information Technology and its impact on libraries. Changing role of libraries and different services that could be offered using IT are discussed. The importance of Internet in imparting higher education and also in delivery of information is discussed. Author suggests that use of IT is essential to meet the needs of users in the academic world.

* Asst. Librarian, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli - 620 024