PLANNER - 2005 Report

Third Convention PLANNER 2005 was organized by INFLIBNET Centre in collaboration with Assam University Silchar during November 10-11, 2005. The theme of the convention addressed was "Digital Collection Management and E-journal Management in Libraries". Planner 2005 was the third successful convention organized by the centre in its series of programs for promoting library Automation and networking in the North Eastern (NE) region of the country. Librarians, Information professionals' academics and administrators from the NE Region met their colleagues from the rest of the countries.

The convention was inaugurated by the Hon. Union Minister Shri Santosh Mohan Dev and was presided over by Prof. S C Saha, Vice Chancellor of Assam University. Professionals from Bangladesh and United Kingdom also attended the convention. Hon. Minister Shri Deb thought that digital information storage and delivery was in keeping with the cherished dream of Dr. Rabindranath Tagore for storing universal knowledge for the benefit of humanity.

Prof. S C Saha, VC Assam University gave the presidential address and released the Souvenir and Proceedings. Dr. T A V Murthy in his powerful keynote address said that the Government of India is committed to support the provision of digital information resources. Scientists and researchers require access to information at their desktop to do their jobs efficiently. Sh. V D Srivastava, University Librarian and Organizing Secretary of PLANNER-2005 welcomed the guests and participants while Sh. H G Hosamani, Chief Convenor, PLANNER-2005 proposed vote of thanks.

Technical papers were presented in three separate sessions. The technical sessions were chaired by Prof. Pravakar Rath, Department of Library and Information Science, Mizoram University, Sh. Manoj Kumar, Scientist-D, INFLIBNET Centre and Dr. V S Cholin, Scientist-B, INFLIBNET Centre. There were presentations by commercial houses relevant to the needs of the library and information professionals. Sh. Manoj Kumar K, Scientist-D, INFLIBNET Centre conducted a tutorial on "Building Digital library using DSpace" chaired by Prof. Narendra Lakhar, Department of Library and information Science Gauhati University. Ms. Gurdish Sandhu in her valedictory message emphasised the importance of sharing the knowledge. Premchand, Scientist-C, welcomed the delegates in the valedictory session and Sh. Manoj Kumar, Scientist-D, INFLIBNET spoke on behalf of Director INFLIBNET. Prof. S C Saha, Vice Chancellor, Assam University gave valedictory remarks.

RECOMMENDATIONS of PLANNER-2005

After discussions with many participants, and having received reports from chairs and rapporteurs of the technical sessions, following recommendations are submitted for the consideration of the concerned authorities.

1. The SOUL package developed by INFLIBNET should be made available to all universities, colleges including library and Information Science departments in the North East region. This will help to form a strong base for library automation/computerization that could lead to networking and digitization.

- 2. All libraries in the region should be helped to develop technical expertise to handle library technologies (library management systems, website, networks, learning management systems, hardware/ software management). Dedicated staff (Information scientists, Systems administrators, programmers / Analysts) for these operations is necessary for making efficient use of these technologies and digital collections.
- 3. Develop training modules for the library staff, which can be delivered online, and /or onsite as and when required. Library departments in the region should be encouraged financially and technically to develop and deliver such short training programmes as needed. To cascade the training interested individuals be identified and trained to provide onsite training in each library in the region.
- Library automation should be extended to all the libraries in the region and encouraged to share resources. Expertise and resources be provided to develop digital collections and regional digital repository.
- 5. Library staff in the region is isolated. To expose staff to new technologies and service delivery methods initiate staff exchange programmes nationally and internationally.
- Take advantage where possible of wireless and satellite communication technologies to connect all the libraries in the region. Thereby, preventing the development of digital divide.
