

Computerization of Library : A Study with Reference to NITK Library

By

S. Muddu Moolya*

ABSTRACT

The author discusses the needs of computerization of technical libraries. Herein various steps involved and plan of action to be taken are discussed. It describes how the latest technology can be adopted step by step. This article is prepared with practical experiences of the author regarding library computerization. It is hoped, this article is very much useful to the professionals for computerization of their libraries.

* Assistant Librarian, N.I.T.K. Library, Suratkal, Karnataka.