ABSTRACT

With hundreds of millions of web pages online, we could spend a lifetime surfing the Web, following links from one page to another. Amusing perhaps, but not very efficient if we are after some specific information. One of the biggest complaints we hear concerns the difficulty of targeting information. Where do we Start ? Searching the Internet requires part skill, part luck and a little bit of art. This paper gives the basic information about Advance Search Techniques and few tips for fast searching of required information.
