

IIM-K staffer selected scientist at INFLIBNET

Kozhikode, Jan 24: K Manoj Kumar, an officer in IIM-K Computer Center, has been selected as a senior scientist in the Information and Library Network

(INFLIBNET) Centre of the UGC at Ahmedabad.

As a scientist with the INFLIBNET, which is a network of 260 libraries in in the country, Manoj Kumar will be the member of the team which develops various library-related software, setting up networking facilities, assisting libraries in computerisation and training the library professionals.

Manoj Kumar, a native of Perambra in the district, joined the IIM-K in 1998. He had served as a programme faculty for various management development programmes at the IIM. • ENS